1. What is Fanfiction?

Fanfiction is a new work of fiction that uses the characters, settings, world, or plot from the existing popular TV shows, books, comics, films, plays, anime, games, cartoons. Usually, fanfiction is created by fans who loves the original work and want to further explore the lives of the characters they know and love and the world in which they live. Fans can both keep the creator's characters and settings or re-write scenes, add new characters to their story. It should be noted that fanfiction is mostly free because the writers create their work based on the love or enjoyment of the original work. Through fanfictions, fans get to live out their wildest and most impractical dreams with their favorite characters.

2. Best Fanfiction Sites

There are so many options to enjoy fanfiction. What makes the best fanfiction site? We believe the most important criterion should be the quality of content. In consideration of the following aspects, the quality of content, easy of use, availability of content, and level of customization features, we pick these top 13 best fanfiction websites for you.

1. Wattpad

When it comes to the best fanfiction websites, we must think of Wattpad. Wattpad is a website for both amateur and established writers to publish stories. It is probably the most well-known fanfiction website available and the most popular writing community out there. Although Wattpad has a large base of content (from original content to fanfiction), most of works have poor quality writing. Wattpad doesn't focus on how you write the story, but rather how you tell it. And the most popular fics are fast paced, and full of drama and engaging story. However, the search function is very clunky. It is hard to find works that you like in fanfiction in particular.
